The Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 27 {Entered at the Post Office at Janesville Wis., as second-class matter.} JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1883. {Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at $6 a Year.} NUMBER 167

The democrats won't find much malaria in Ohio after the election.

Mr. Tilden is not yachting for fun exactly. When he swims four or five miles along-side his hired yacht, and runs up stairs, taking three or four steps at a time, he is thinking of 1884.

The report that General Grant's life has been published more than that of any other president except Washington, is not true. Lincoln has twice as many biographers as Grant, and the end of them is not yet come.

The story is told that when the judges at Narragausett announced that Jay-Eye-See had made 2:10¾, Mr. Case was so excited and gratified that he actually kissed his wife. Once in a while men will forget themselves and do a handsome thing.

The republicans of Chicago are throwing away a good deal of time in trying to organize. They never can succeed by fooling in such business. It takes courage, common sense and harmony to make a political organization strong and effective.

The papers are advising Mr. Blaine not to talk too much, and write nothing. The advice is timely. Whether he be a candidate or not, it is wisdom to be as silent as possible. Unnecessary interviews and useless letters have retired a good many politicians.

The Americans are uncommonly prolific when it comes to patents. During the year ending June 30 last the number of caveats filed was 35,734, as against 30,062 in the year previous, and the receipts of the office for 1883 were $305,-989 more than in 1881, and $165,020 more than in 1882.

A Wisconsin cadet by the name of E. B. Bird, has been dismissed from the naval academy for hazing. When cadets understand, once and for all, that a prompt dismissal is the penalty for hazing, they will make up their minds that it is better to act the part of a gentleman than that of a ruffian.

The public has been advised as to the number and character of the corrections the queen made in the poem Tennyson wrote on John Brown. One report has t that the poet laureate is on the northern seas trying to get inspiration for the task Victoria has laid out for him The sea doesn't deal in that kind of inspiration.

The Chicago Journal remarks "if all the democrats in Iowa would move into Ohio, or all the democrats in Ohio into Iowa, the party might stand a show of carrying one of these states. As things stand now they can't carry either." That is just it. They propose to give these seats to the republicans "on the silver platter."

It is now claimed that the story that Mary Anderson refused an introduction to the prince of Wales, is false. The prince was out of town when the snubbing is said to have been done. If Miss Anderson's agent started the report for an advertising dodge, it shows that an American does not forget his tricks when he gets in London.

When the campaign of '84 comes, Dorsey will be the great democratic light. Having robbed the government out of several hundred thousand dollars, he is just the man the democrats want to whack the republicans for attempting to punish him for the theft. A dishonest republican is a boon to the democrats. They always give him shelter.

Postmaster General Gresham has officially ordered that 2 and 3 cent stamps and stamped envelopes of the present designs will continue to be valid after the 1st of October, and must be accepted in payment of postage whenever offered. The 3-cent stamps may be used in combination with other combinations on letters requiring more than one rate of postage, and on parcels of the third and fourth class matter.

Next Tuesday, the 25th, will be the soldiers' day at the Milwaukee exposition. The managers have issued a circular to all commanders, officers and members of the Wisconsin National Guard, and all Wisconsin Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, as follows:

For companies of the Wisconsin state guard and posts of the grand army of the Republic, coming to Milwaukee—in the uniform of the state guard, or wearing the insignia of the grand army of the Republic—to attend the exercises of "soldiers' day," Tuesday, September 25th, all railroad companies in the state have fixed on the low rate of one and one-half cents per mile, each way. This arrangement will hold good to return either on Tuesday, the 25th, or Wednesday the 26th.

The managers say: "As this will be the first general parade of the Wisconsin National guard, and the only general reunion of the Wisconsin posts of the grand army of the republic before 1885, it is hoped that every company of the National guard and every post of the grand army in the state will be present. In cases where full companies or full posts cannot come, let them send as many representatives as possible."

The condition of things in Dakota as regards the capital, is becoming quite interesting. The effect of Judge Edgerton's decision that the capital commission is an illegal body, will be to keep the capital of the territory at Yankton, unless the supreme court should otherwise order. It will take three or four Justices of the supreme court to reverse Judge Edgerton's decision, so the question is looked upon in certain interested quarters as practically settled in favor of Yankton. What the result will be cannot be guessed at present. One side maintains that the supreme court will reverse the decision of Judge Edgerton, while the other side claims that it will hold it good. However this may be, the decision doesn't seem to dampen the spirits of the citizens of Bismarck. Lots yet sell at a high figure, and the work of building the capitol is being pushed with vigor. The location of the capital at that place was a gross piece of injustice. It smacks of foul play and dishonesty. It is hundreds of miles from the center of population. When the Missouri cannot be navigated in winter, it will require 600 or 800 miles travel for the people of South Dakota to reach Bismarck. These facts force the conviction that the commission was tampered with.

GRANT AND EVARTS.

The Soldier and the Lawyer Talk Short.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 19.—Gen. U. S. Grant, the Hon. William M. Evarts, Frederick Billings, Gen. John Newton, United States engineer; Gen. Macfeely, commissary general United States army; Mr. Jesse R. Grant, and Mr. W. W. Smith, of Pennsylvania, arrived in St. Paul, and, after a visit to department headquarters at Fort Snelling, proceeded on their homeward trip. Taking into consideration Gen. Grant's well-known disinclination to converse on political subjects, the reporter touched this subject very gengerly. "I have seen a statement in a St. Louis paper purporting to emanate from you, general, that you favored Mr. Conkling for the presidency. May I ask if this was your language?"

"I never made such a statement. This is incorrect, but I would like to see ——," and the general's eye sparkled and he smiled a very meaning smile. Continuing, Gen. Grant said he had not visited Yellowstone Park, but would do so at a future time. This was a trip which he reserved for the future.

"Do you think Mr. Tilden is a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the presidency?" the reporter asked Mr. Evarts. Up to this time Mr. Evarts had been very communicative, but the mere suggestion of politics closed his lips. He was thoughtful for a moment, and only for a moment. His eyes twinkled merrily and he looked the full force of what he replied: "I don't know anything of Mr. Tilden's ambitions. I belong to another parish."

"Another parish?"

"Yes, it's time. There is religion in politics—and division, too," the statesman replied.

TARIFF CONVENTION.

Meeting of Protectionists at Columbus, Ohio.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 19.—The state tariff convention met here. Many persons arrived in the city on an excursion from the mining districts and some of the wool-growing counties, but few of them attended the convention or the mass-meeting. The meeting was that of the second annual session of the association of American economists, and after speeches by Judge Lawrence, Gov. Foster, Gen. Green B. Raum, and others a state tariff association was organized with Solomon Churchill, a large iron manufacturer, as president, W. F. Nutt, of Sandusky, as secretary, and Thomas Fitzmurry, of Cleveland, as treasurer. It was shown that forty-five tariff clubs had been formed in the state, and each one was directed to select a member of the state committee and a vice president. An executive committee was chosen, consisting of S. Churchill, W. Nutt, Thomas Fitzmurry, Dr. G. A. Newton and Will C. Turner. The tendency and drift of the meeting were toward the Republicans in the present canvass. Resolutions were adopted for a protective tariff to all industries, and condemning in the severest terms the doctrine of tariff for revenue. The Ohio Tariff association is to co-operate with the association of American economists hereafter. Dr. Young and L. Sanial, of that association, were here running the meeting, and have been engaged for weeks about the state in working up the boom. About all the foreign aid the Republicans have received this year is from the tariff advocates, and they are trying to balance the money furnished by the liquor trade with it.

Cut on Newspaper Prices.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The Tribune says: "this paper will hereafter be sold at 3 cents a copy. The reduction is made on the theory that our readers are our partners, and entitled to share in our good fortune in the reduced price of paper. If we were striving to stimulate a failing circulation, we should doubtless make a more startling reduction. As it is, our general prosperity counsels us to maintain the policy so long approved of expending liberally upon our columns, to keep them worthy of the large circulation among the best people, and of charging a price sure to be consistent with such an expenditure." The Times had previously announced a reduction from 4 to 2 cents per copy.

THRILLING TRAGEDY.

A New Jersey Clergyman's Terrible Deed of Blood.

He Murders His Wife, Cuts His Own Throat and then Hurls His Bleeding Form from the Fourth Story Window.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A woman startled passers-by in Fulton street, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, by appearing at a window in the top story of the Atlantic bank building, screaming and drawing attention by frantic gestures. The building is only a few hundred yards from the Fulton ferry. The ground floor is used for banking purposes and the four upper stories are occupied as dwellings. Those who saw her thought there was fire in the building, and a lad ran into the bank and shouted "Fire!" The clerks began to bundle their books and papers into the vaults, and the lad ran back into the street. The woman had disappeared from the window, but the screaming could still be heard. A moment later a man came to the window, placed his hands upon the sill, and dived head foremost to the street. The elevation was nearly fifty feet, and the man shot down with terrible velocity. He reached the ground eighteen feet from the base of the building. He struck on his shoulders near the curb, his head resting in the gutter. Those who saw him leap say that at first his knees were drawn up and his arms held close to his sides. When near the awning, which is just above the window of the bank, he stretched out his arms as if to clutch it. The crowd which had collected at the woman's screams gathered around the man. Thomas Hudson raised his head from the gutter, while a policeman hurried for an ambulance. The man's neck was deeply gashed on the left side. He had evidently cut his throat before taking the awful leap, a physician ran to a neighboring drug store, and obtaining a plaster forced his way through the crowd and placed it over the wound. An ambulance was called, and he was taken to the Long Island college hospital where he died an hour later. It was the Rev. James Kemlo, a minister of the Dutch Reformed church. He had just come from Newark in company with his wife, to visit his mother, who resides in the top story of the bank building. Before slashing his own throat and jumping from the window, he killed his wife by cutting her throat.

When he had startled the bank clerks with the announcement that the building was on fire, E. Kollem, one of the bookkeepers, hastened up stairs to find out what was burning. He heard a commotion in the Kemlo apartments, and knocked at the door of the front room. Facing the doorway stood James Kemlo grasping a blood-stained carving-knife. As the door opened he drew the knife-blade across his throat. Then quickly turning he rushed toward the window. Kellam hastened to the street to notify the police, but when he reached the sidewalk the minister lay dying on the curbstone. The room in which the tragedy occurred is about fourteen feet wide by twenty feet deep. Everything bore evidence of a struggle. Mrs. Kemlo lay on the floor near the doorway. The gash in her neck had severed the jugular vein.

The minister and his wife are said to have been very affectionate. His mother, who is nearly 70 years old, left them together less than half an hour before the murder and They had come from Newark to pay a short visit. The minister had complained of feeling unwell, and laid down upon the bed. His wife sat beside him and held his hand. The mother laid the table, and then went out to buy an extra relish for her son's dinner. When she tottered slowly home, carrying her purchases, a large crowd was before her door. She ask why it was there, and then saw her son, who was being lifted into an ambulance. Some one told her he had accidentally fallen from a window. She was overcome by grief, and was helped to the apartments of a neighbor where the evil news was broken to her. "My poor Jamie!" was all she said. The dead minister was 35 years old, and was born in Scotland. His parents came to this country when he was an infant. He received a good education, graduating from Rutgers university. Four years ago he was ordained a minister. About this time he married Miss Emilie Frances Voorhies, who was then 21 years old. He secured a charge at Mountville, N.J., which he retained until a few months ago. While at Mountville he was attacked with malaria, and his mind became affected to such an extent that he was unable to properly attend to his duties. He was greatly respected by his parishioners, who made his dismissal as mild as possible, laying him off after a vacation. This, together with his disease, greatly worried him, and he became very gloomy. He moved from Mountville to Newark with his wife and two daughters, aged respectively 2¾ years and 9 months. A friend of the family says he threatened to kill himself. He was so despondent that when recently he had a call to preach in Peekskill, on the Hudson, he was undecided whether to go there. He frequently visited his parents, who for ten years have lived in the Atlantic building. A sister, who is an opera singer, is in Michigan. He thought of going to Europe for his health and drew money from the Bleecker Street bank, this city, sufficient to pay for the passage of himself and family. It is said he was a very fond husband, and there were no known differences between himself and his wife. The two children were left with some of Mrs. Kemlo's relatives in Newark. Mr. Kemlo's fits of despondency were well known to his friends, but as he had never exhibited any signs of becoming violent no restraint was placed on him. One of his intimate friends said: "There is no other cause to be ascribed to this crime than despondency. His losing his church and his suffering from malarial fever undoubtedly affected his mind. He was a very promising man, and had many friends to regret his death."

BEN BUTLER.

The Bay State Governor's Characteristic Remarks.

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—The following is an interview had with Gov. Butler:

Reporter—Gov. Butler, I see it appears that Henry L. Pierce has written a letter of withdrawal from the canvass.

Gov. Butler—Yes, I see; but the newspapers lie so I can't place any dependence upon what they say. Do you really take it to be a withdrawal?

Reporter—Yes, sir. I am sure of it. Have you anything to say about it?

Gov. Butler—Yes. All I have to say is, to repeat the old couplet:

Three cheers for the dead already,
Hurrah for the next to die.

Architect Hill.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 19.—The report of the committee appointed by the secretary of the treasury to investigate the charges against Supervising Architect Hill has been given out for publication. Some of the findings of the committee are severe on Mr. Hill and his resignation is freely talked of.

HESING-MICHAELIS.

The Unpleasantness Between the Chicago Editors Gets into Court.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The war between Richard Michaelis, editor of The Neue Freie Presse, and the editors and proprietors of The Staats-Zeitung, is growing much more spirited. Mr. Michaelis caused the arrest of A. C. Hesing, Washington Hesing, Hermann Raster and William Rapp, all of The Staats-Zeitung, on the charge of criminal libel. The warrant was issued by Justice Meech, and the accused gave bail in the sum of $500 each for their appearance next Friday. The examination of the defendants will likely prove very interesting.

Michaelis alleges in his complaints that the defendants August 20 and on divers other dates caused to be published certain statements calculated to impeach the honesty, integrity, and virtue of the complainant and expose him to public hatred and contempt.

The direct cause of the present prosecution, not going back to a long standing feud existing between the German journalists, was the publication by the Staats-Zeitung of a number of editorial, tending, it is alleged, to reflect on the character of Mr. Michaelis as a journalist and citizen. The Staats-Zeitung alleged that Mr. Michaelis was guilty of copying in his paper without authority advertisements and death notices from The Staatz-Zeitung, and attempting to collect money therefor. Mr. Michaelis says he was even accused of attempting to collect money on account of a death notice before the corpse of the dead person had been taken from the house for burial. All these charges he declares to be entirely false. The other side, however, asserts that on one occasion The Freie Presse copied from The Staats-Zeitung a bogus death notice which had been published simply as a trap to catch Mr. Michaelis, the number where the supposed death had occurred being located on a vacant lot.

A NEW YORK BLAZE.

Three Quarters of a Million Swept Away.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Fire broke out in the basement of Nos. 537 and 539 Broadway. The basement and floor above were occupied by Hellman & Herman, wholesale dealers in fine underwear. The store had been closed up when the fire was discovered. The smoke and flames were first noticed on the Mercer street side. The building has a frontage of 37½ feet and is 200 feet deep. The flames ascended through the elevator to the top floor, and the efforts of the firemen failed to save the building, which is five stories high. The losses are estimated as follows, principally by members of the firms concerned:

Hellman & Herman, furnishing goods, basement and first floor, $250,000. William Knowlton & Sons, straw goods, second floor, $75,000. Sadeckson Bros., clothiers, part of second and third floors, $100,000. A. Fredberg & Sons, fourth and fifth floors, $100,000; D. L. Newberg & Sons, clothiers, No. 541 Broadway, $150,000; Forsch, Engo & Co., hats, also No. 541 Broadway, $50,000.

Several firemen overcome by smoke were taken to the hospital. No one was seriously injured. Detective-Sergeant Philip Reilly was prostrated and sent to St. Vincent hospital. The building belongs to the Gilsey & Beeman estates, and stands on the site of Barnum's old museum, which was burned down. The buildings are valued at $500,000. The were put up fifteen years ago. They are damaged to the extent of $100,000.

ARCHITECT HILL.

He Intends to Resign Soon--Candidate for the Position.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 19.—It is now well known that the supervising architect intends to resign at an early day. He has said as much, both to his friends and the secretary of the treasury. When the investigation began he informed the Secretary he did not care longer for a place which was subject to so much criticism, and the incumbent of which was a constant target for dissatised contractors, and that he expected to retire as soon as the report should be completed, if it made no reflections upon his personal honor and honesty. The report contains no such reflections, therefore Mr. Hill is expected soon to redeem his promise.

There are a number of candidates for the office of supervising architect of the treasury. J. L. Smithmeyer, an architect of this city, is among the number. As the office and its methods will certainly become the subject of congressional discussion this winter, with the possibility of reorganization and changes, the position is not a desirable one. When Mr. Hill's resignation is tendered it will be to take effect on the appointment of his successor.

Christian Convention at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Christian convention opened at Farwell hall by the singing of "Look Ye Saints, the Sight Is Glorious," while the audience of fully 3,000 people rose to their feet. A prayer was then offered by the Rev. Jeremiah Porter, the first preacher who ever came to Chicago. The audience then saug "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior," under the leadership of Mr. Sankey. Scripture reading, prayers and more singing followed, and then Mr. Moody asked Dr. E. P. Goodwin to open the discussion on the question: "How Can We Best Secure a Preparation for Christ's Work?" The discussion was continued by Rev. Stevenson, Major Whittle, Mr. Moody and others, after which the whole congregation knelt in silent prayer, which was followed by singing. "Hindrances to Christ's Kingdom" was the second subject of the day, and was discussed by Dr. Barrows, Dr. Goodell and Mr. Moody. The noon hour was devoted to prayer meeting.

Accidentally Killed.

MEXICO, Mo., Sept. 19.—Mr. James H. Vaughan, a farmer living six miles west of this city, near Thompson station, was shot and almost instantly killed by his son, John Vaughan. The old man was drawing water from a spring near where the son was intent on shooting a squirrel. The latter walked into the brush with his gun cocked, and the trigger came in contact with a limb, causing the weapon to be discharged, the elder Vaughan receiving the entire load in his body, and dying before he could be moved to the house. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental shooting. The old gentleman's sixtieth birthday was approaching, and the son had been engaged for several days in preparing for a celebration of the event.

McDermott Released.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 19.—James McDermott, who left Brooklyn recently for England, and who had been examined three times before a Stipendary justice on the charge of conspiracy to murder public officials in connection with the dynamite party, was again brought before court and discharged, the evidence against him being deemed insufficient.

Ladies Garments!

AT

The New York Cash Store

For the Fall and Winter trade of '83. We have for the past few days been opening our

FALL AND WINTER GARMENTS

From one of the largest manufacturers of these goods in the world. They will be all ready and on sale at our cloak and shawl room on the Milwaukee street side of our store on Tuesday Morning, September 18th.

It is well understood by the people of this city and southern Wisconsin, that last year we carried the finest and largest stock of garments of any house in the interior of the State, and did the leading trade in fine garments in this city. That every one knows is so. This season we propose to do the same thing right over, only we propose to do just double what we did last year. We have to start in on double the stock that we had all last season and have marked them at a very low price. We do not propose to wait until late in the season to reduce the price, but have done it right from the start. Parties that intend purchasing garments this season will find the assortment much better than late in the season and the price just as low.

Our stock of Light Colored Dolmans, Black Beaver Diagonal Dolmans, Plush Dolmans, Heavy Silk Dolmans, Ulsterettes, Russians, Sicilians, Polasses, and Jackets. In all this style of garments we know no competition in this city. The entire people of the state are cordially invited to call and examine our stock. Parties residing in Milwaukee and Chicago visiting friends in this city are especially invited to call and examine our stock and they will see at once that they save 25 per cent by buying their garments of us instead of buying them at home. It is a well known fact that we had the only good stock of garments in the city last year of these sizes. This year we have doubled our stock from the same celebrated manufacturer that we had last year of those fine garments. We can fit any Miss from 4 to 14 years in this class of goods. Our line is very full and complete. Missses' and Children's garments running in size from 4 to 14 years of age. September 15, 1883.

A BOASTING BRITON.

He Declares British Columbia the Coming Empire and Predicts Uncle Sam's Dissolution.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Tribune has the following special from Victoria, B. C.:

It was at the most western point of their journey that the newspaper section of the Villard party had one of the most peculiar experiences. Upon arriving at Victoria, the principal resident members of the provincial government of British Columbia were invited to meet them at lunch on board the steamer North Pacific, which Mr. Villard had furnished for the journey. Among those present were the prime minister, the Hon. Wm. Smith; the Hon. John Roberson, provincial secretary and minister of finance; Mr. Redfern, mayor of Victoria; Mr. Francis, the American consul, and Mr. Higgins, the editor of The Colonist, of Victoria.

In replying to the toast of, "The Queen," Premier Smith made a speech which was evidently the expression of views which had been long pondered, and no doubt represented the opinions of a large part of his constituency. The annexation of British Columbia or any part to the United States he declared impossible, but the future would certainly bring to pass the annexation of a part of the Pacific coast section of the United States to British Columbia. It was in that province with its vast deposits of coal, with exhaustless timber, with its unparalleled harbors, with illimitable wheat fields behind it, and with the new type it was breeding of men and women of unapproachable physique, that the star of empire was to reach its final zenith. Through British Columbia the pathway of Asiatic trade was 1,000 miles shorter than by San Francisco. This fact and the absence of coal in California and the speedy absorption of all the arable land tributary to it showed that San Francisco had about reached its highest development. Portland could not carry across the bars of the Columbia the magnificent commerce that Asia is offering us. It was in British Columbia that the northwestwardly march of civilization was to reach its culmination.

Passing beyond the delineation of the future glories of this province, the premier, with less tact than might have been expected, proceeded to prophesy the certain dissolution of the American Union. "It is," he said, "a matter of deep conviction with me and with many others, who have attentively considered the drift of affairs in the United States that that country cannot continue undivided. Its elements of population are too varied, the interests of its different sections are too diverse. The day will come when it must go to pieces, and when that day comes British Columbia will be glad to take into her arms that fragment of it which is natural neighbor."

EDITORIAL AMENITIES.

The Principal Cincinnati Dailies Harassing Each Other.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—The Commercial Gazette company, by M. Halstead, president, and Richard Smith, vice president, filed a complaint under rule 13 of the chamber of commerce, charging John R. McLean with unmercantile conduct in making false, malicious, and reckless statements about the business of the complainants, with the intent and purpose of injuring the same. The paper is said to be very specific in its claim that the statements made in The Enquirer in regard to The Commercial Gazette are utterly false, and without even a basis of truth, and alleging that they have been made with the intent of damaging the credit and business of the company. The complainants ask that John R. McLean be cited to appear before the board of officers of the chamber of commerce, and required to answer and show cause why he should not be suspended or expelled, as may be determined after a fair trial. The paper is in the pocket of President Peabody, and has not been seen by any one else. It will be presented to the board of directors for action on Friday. It was reported that Smith said that suit for libel would be filed but he denied it. As to the proceeding before the chamber of commerce he said: Something had to be done. McLean's statement about our business have been so outrageous that we determined that there ought to be some proceeding to either stop him, or to show beyond question their falsity." McLean was seen by a reporter, and was much surprised to learn that such an action wes instituted, denied all knowledge of it, and cut the interview short.

PENSION MATTERS.

A Large Sum Paid Out, But Plenty of Funds on Hand.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 19.—Of the appropriation of $100,000,000 for the payment of pensions for the fiscal year ended June 30, $30,000,000 remained unexpended and was re-appropriated for the present fiscal year, making the sum available for the expenses of the pension bureau about $125,000,000. Commissioner Dudley expresses the opinion that there will be another large surplus at the end of the present fiscal year. In that event he will ask to have the surplus reappropriated, and expects to be able to considerably reduce the amount required for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1884. The commissioner says, notwithstanding the probable expenses of this large surplus, the number of pension claims passed upon the present year will show a large increase over last year, and he attributes the saving to the character of the cases and the efficiency of the examiners. Commissioner Dudley is also of opinion he will be enabled to reduce the number of employes in the pension bureau from 1,500 to 1,250 the next fiscal year.

Saw Him in a Vision.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Henry Heinze, a farm hand, 24 years old, left Crete, a small village thirty miles from Chicago, July 16, going to Mattoon, and has not been heard from since. He had worked for a man named Faunbach, who owed him six moths' wages, which he said he would call for in a few days. About a week before his departure Heinze said that Faunbach's son, 18 years old, had threatened to kill him. Young Faunbach admits that he often quarreled with Heinze, but denies threatening his life. Interest in the case is increased by the fact that Heinze's sister claims to have seen him in a vision, with the blood trickling from a wound in his head. As she started toward him she dreamed, he disappeared in a brush-heap.

Had Enough Salt.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Lorin A Davis, a salt merchant, has brought suit for $10,000 against Phil Armour in the superior court. It seems that Armour had inadvertently given orders for much more salt than he has pigs to put into, and Davis' consignment, consisting of several cargoes, coming in last he declined to accept it; hence the suit.

George Ticknor Curtis, in behalf of the relatives and executors of President James Buchanan, brands as a vile slander the floating statement that the dead statesman ever sustained intimate relations to Mrs. Thomas, who recently died in the almshouse at Philadelphia.

Heavy rains fell Monday night at Guaymas, Mexico, clearing the atmosphere. A merchant of that city, now in San Francisco, says the violence of the fever was due to the want of rain, and that physicians terrified the people by calling the disease yellow fever.

O'Donnell, the man who dispatched Informer Carey off the African coast, was taken to London, under guard of a large force of police, and lodged in Millbank jail. In the afternoon he was conveyed to Bow street police court and charged with murder on the high sea. Large crowds gathered at every point, and gave vent to cheers and hisses.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Rodiger & McIntyre's market letter of this evening says: In continuation of yesterday's weakness the market opened again very heavy this morning with sales of November wheat at 95¾c against last nights closing at 96⅛c and after falling to 96c sold down to 95½c. At this point, however, the tide was turned and the closing was at higher figures than those made at the opening, the latest sales of November this afternoon having been at 97c. Corn was weak this morning, but towards noon prices improved and close strong this afternoon. Provisions were strong in sympathy with the general advance.

THE LABOR QUESTION.

Testimony of a Minister of the Gospel and Three Ladies.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The Rev. R. Heber Newton testified before the senate sub-committee on education and labor. The condition of the laboring classes, he said, was a subject for expert study and at the present time there was not sufficient information regarding it upon which to base any intelligent legislation. The difficulties met with by labor reformers here were the intemperate habits of the laboring classes and the improper methods to which labor resorted in endeavoring to accomplish its desires. The great want of the people he considered to be industrial education. The instruction in the public schools was wofully deficient, and its tendency was entirely one-sided. It has given to the youths of the country a dislike for manual labor, which was a very dangerous tendency. Co-operation was spoken of by the witness as the greatest aid to the elevation of the working classes.

Lillie Devereux Blake advocated the establishment of matronships in all penal institutions and state reformatories for girls.

Mrs. D. G. Croly, newspaper writer, who has given considerable study to the condition of laboring women in this city, recommended a system of compulsory education, not only in the common schools, but in industrial schools, where women would be taught how to work. The homestead exemption laws should be made more protective to the stability of the householder, and the possession of a homestead should be made requisite for obtaining citizenship.

Mrs. Dr. Clemence S. Lozier advocated the use of the ballot by women as the most practical means of improving their condition.

The President and the Coreans.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The Corean embassy was received at the Fifth Avenue Hotel by President Arthur. Prince Min Yong Ik made an address upon being presented, which was replied to by the president. The embassy consisted of the chief minister, Min Yonk Ik, the vice minister, Hong Yong Sik, and So Koang Pom, secretary of the legation.

For Sale.

The Norcross homestead. A large well built house with barn, granary, hen-house and five acres of land, within three-quarters of a mile from the C. & N. W. and C. M. & St. Paul railroad depots, and within 1¼ miles from the postoffice of the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin. The house is a high two story hipped roof frame building, containing large parlors, dining room with large bay window, library, kitchen, bathroom and seven sleeping rooms. The grounds are 20x40 rods, and divided into pasture, garden, small butternut orchard and lawn, and are well stocked with fruit and ornamental trees. The above named premises are exceedingly well adapted to the business of a tobacco grower or dealer. More land can be had if desired. Terms will be made to suit purchaser. JANESVILLE
MEDICAL DISPENSARY,
Office and Parlors,
Janesville, Wis.,

DR. FISHBLATT
PROPRIETOR,
Late Lecturer and Professor in one of the medical colleges and editor of the New York Medical and Surgical Journal, consulting physician and operative surgeon in the New York Hospital for Chronic Diseases.
WHERE HE CAN BE CONSULTED On Rheumatic Affections!
Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and NERVOUS DISEASES,
As well as all
Chronic Diseases.

Dr. Fishblatt has devoted 20 years to the study and treatment of Chronic Diseases, and his experience in the hospitals in New York, where he has successfully treated over 10,000 cases of Chronic Catarrh, Scrofulous Diseases and Diseases of the Genito Urinary Organs, has given him a reputation that is world wide.

Dr. Fishblatt
Has discovered the greatest cure in the world for weakness of the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, paleness of sight or giddiness, diseases of the throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs stomach, or bowels;—those terrible disorders arising from solitary practice more fatal to their victims than the songs of the sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible.

YOUNG MEN.
Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, who might, if otherwise, entrance listening senates with the thunder of their eloquence, or wake to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriage.
Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness (loss of procreation power, impotency,) nervous debility or any other disqualifications speedily relieved. He who places himself under the care of Dr. Fishblatt may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

Organic WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This affliction—which renders life a burden and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victim of improper indulgence. Young persons are apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands this subject will deny that procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both mind and body arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, wasting of the frame, cough, consumption and death

A Cure Warranted.
Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders who keep them trifling month after month, taking poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

Dr. Fishblatt
Graduated at one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at certain sounds, with frequent blushing, attended somewhat with derangement of the mind, were cured immediately.

Particular Notice.
Dr. F. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruins both mind and body, unfitting them for business, study, society, marriage. These are some of the sad, melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, namely: Weakness in the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of musical power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, debility consumption, etc.

Special Notice.
Those who reside at a distance desiring the Doctor's services, and cannot call, will receive prompt attention through the mails by writing, stating symptoms, etc., enclosing stamp, when a printed list of questions will be sent to those who cannot call to fill out. Address

POLITICAL POINTS.

New Jersey Republicans Nominate a Ticket--Notes From New York and Iowa.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 19.—The Republican state convention assembled at noon. William Walter Phelps was chosen temporary chairman. After the appointment of the usual committees a recess was taken until 2:30 p. m.

At 2:30 o'clock the convention reassembled. Senator John Taylor was appointed permanent chairman. He said the people paid no attention to political promises. It was action that swayed the multitude. He thought the signs of the times were all in favor of an aggressive campaign being successful. He had no sympathy for the cowardly sentiment that discounted success.

The platform reaffirms the doctrines of the last national platform; approves the administration of President Arthur; congratulates the country upon the application of the principles of civil service reform to national administration; insists upon a tariff for protection; calls for an equitable system of state taxation, and pledges to the candidate nominated by the convention a hearty support.

The counties were then called for nominations, and the only names presented were Judge Jonathan Dixson, of Hudson county, and ex-Congressman John Hill, of Morris county. It was evident before the figures were footed up that Dixon was the choice, and before the announcement of the result could be made the chairman of the Morris county delegation moved the nomination be made unanimous. This was received with much applause. After the cheering ceased Chairman Taylor declared Mr. Dixon unanimously nominated for governor. Before adjourning, a state committee was appointed.

PALMER'S CHOICE.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 19.—Ex-Gov. John M. Palmer, of Illinois, being in the city on his way to Dayton, where he goes to attend a meeting of the managers of the Soldiers' home, was accosted by a correspondent in the corridor of the Planters' house. "I favor the old ticket," said he, "and believe that both Tilden and Hendricks are anxious and eager to run. If nominated they will certainly be elected. I consider Tilden a vigorous, energetic man, and capable physically and mentally to undergo the worriment of another campaign, and believe he will make an excellent executive. New York is solid for the Democracy, and there is nothing in the political horizon that would presage anything but success for the old ticket."

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The executive committee of the Anti-Machine Republicans adopted resolutions denouncing the proclamation of the machine organization that its doors were open to all Republicans as a shame, declaring the late primaries were conducted according to the usual machine methods, and that only five of the eighty delegates elected are Independents, and concluded by stating that, while they are loyal Republicans, they do not hold themselves political frauds." A copy of the resolutions will be forwarded to the state convention.

RICHFIELD SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 19.—The attendance upon the Republican state convention is not as large as usual. Ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt telegraphed to-day canceling his engagement for rooms. Chauncey M. Depew, Whitelaw Reid, and George William Curtis are among the prominent delegates not expected. It is said a considerable proportion of the New York city delegates will not be present. There is no reason to believe that any strife will arise in the convention over any point.

IOWA NOTES.

ATLANTIC, Ia., Sept. 19.—The fifth joint debate between Governor Sherman and Judge Kinnie, Democratic candidate for governor, was held here. Governor Sherman and his opponent devoted their time to a discussion of the issues, and were listened to with interest by the large audience present. At night General Weaver spoke for the Greenbackers and Judge C. C. Cole for the Republicans.

OSKALOOSA, Iowa, Sept. 19.—The Republican convention for the Sixth district met here and nominated the Hon. E. H. Stiles, of Wapello, for congress to fill the Cutts vacancy. He was formerly a state senator, and then supreme court reporter. The convention declared in favor of the early establishment of the postal telegraph, and for the simplification of the pension laws.

WATERLOO, Iowa, Sept. 19.—Gen. Ben Harrison, of Indiana, addressed an audience of about 3,000 persons in the park in this city, upon the political issue of the day. He said in his introduction that he came to Iowa at the request of Gen. Allison, who had been called from the strife of men to the draped chamber of death. He eulogized Allison, and said that though there might be men in Iowa wicked enough to do it, there was no Democrat in the United States senate reckless enough to assail Senator Allison's character.

Is Fun Better than Physic?

Fun is excellent; a hearty laugh is known the whole world over to be a health promoter; but fun does not fill the bill when a man needs physic, on the other hand people take too much physic. They would be more healthy, live longer and enjoy life thoroughly if they used Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic, which cures all blood disorders, indigestion, kidney and liver troubles, removes pimples, and is a perfect tonic. Can be taken by the most delicate. Only 50 cents per bottle, of Stearns & Baker.

Milton.

—The literary societies have decided to suspend the publication of the College Journal for the present school year. Various causes have conspired to bring about this decision and upon the whole we think the societies were wise in taking this action. We shall welcome its revival at any time.

—Perry Sweet and wife, of Cartwright, are visiting their many relatives and friends in Milton. They report Cartwright booming, there being forty or fifty houses there, where a few years ago there were woods.

—Buy your stationery, books, watches, jewelry and fancy goods of W. W. Clarke.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mack, who have been visiting their son and daughter at Cartwright, returned last Friday.

—Johnny Arthur, who represents A. S. Gage & Co., of Chicago, was in town last week.

—Miss Mattie Seaver took the train for Chicago Saturday, where she will visit friends for a time.

—Milton was well represented at the state fair last week and all who attended pronounce the exhibit a fine one.

—Miss Nethe G. Stillman, of Westerly, R. I., arrived in town Thursday and will spend some time here visiting relatives and acquaintances. She is stopping at the Stannard house.

—Geo. R. Boss, who has been spending some months in Southern Illinois, at Carbondale, returned last week. He does not think much of that section and prefers the Badger state as an abiding place.

—Mr. A. L. Orcutt has begun the erection of a new house on Madison avenue. P. M. Green & Co. furnish the lumber.

—Rev. James Bailey spent last week at Berlin.

—A. A. Brown's new house on High street will soon be ready for the masons.

—Prof. H. W. Rood takes charge of the Omro public schools the present year, and has commenced his duties. He taught last year at Caldott.

—D. Williams has sold his livery stock to H. C. Saunders and Hiram Davy, who took possession last Saturday. The new firm will endeavor to please their patrons.

—Agent Tompkins sold about fifty tickets for the state fair. A good representation for this section.

—Frank B. Clarke and family, of Westerly, R. I., arrived in town last week, and are stopping with their parents, Alvit Clarke and wife. There is a prospect that Mr. Clarke will decide to remain here.

—Prof. A. R. Crandall, of the university of Kentucky, was in town this week visiting his wife and children.

—Dr. E. S. Bailey, of Chicago, Illinois, spent Sunday and Monday here. He is looking hale and hearty.

—Mr. and Mrs. Barney, son and daughter, of West Union, New York, and Mrs. Burdick and son, of Alfred Center, New York, were in town this week.

—If you want a trunk or traveling bag give W. W. Clarke a call.

A Sanguine Readjuster.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—General V. D. Greener, of Virginia, a warm personal friend of Senator Mahone, and one of the prominent Readjuster leaders, has arrived at the Gilsey house. The General, in a conversation, said that the political campaign in the Old Dominion was "booming," and promised to be one of the most exciting that has been known in the state since the war. He was confident from reports received from all parts of the commonwealth that the Readjusters would elect a good working majority in the senate and the house of delegates, and that Virginia would be carried by the Republicans in 1884.

Crushed to a Jelly.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 19.—James Mc Ewen, 14 years of age, was employed in running a trip-hammer in the Otis iron and steel works. He was holding a large piece of iron hung on a chain pendant from a derrick, when in some way it slipped, and the bar, weighing half a ton, fell, striking the lad on the side, crushing his ribs and breast to a jelly.

Cadet A. L. Beebe has been dismissed from West Point for hazing.

"Look Out for the Engine."

I am a locomotive engineer, and have been for twenty years, and am now running on the Maine Central railroad. Life on an engine, as all engineers know, is very trying to health and strength. The continual jar of the engine, and strain on our long trips all tend to weaken the kidneys and urinary organs. In addition to this ten years ago, I met with a severe accident, and I was taken from under my engine with severe internal injuries, which gave me great pain. I was laid up for six months, and suffered more than I can describe, and more than I wish to suffer again. I resumed work, but my kidneys began to disturb me, and my nervous system seemed to be out of order. I could not sleep, a my water demanded such constant attention that I was kept awake a greater part of the night; to urinate caused severe pains. I employed the best medical skill in Portland and elsewhere but continued to grow worse.

I was persuaded to try Hunt's Remedy as I found that many of my friends in Portland had used it with great success, yet I had no faith that it would reach my case. However, I sent for a half-dozen bottles at one of the drug stores, in Portland, and from the use of the first bottle found a great relief. My water was much better and the pain in my back and limbs greatly relieved. I continued its use until I had used ten bottles in all, and it had been to me a wonderful blessing, and I have deemed it a duty and privilege to recommend it to those troubled in a similar manner; and you may publish this for the benefit of our railroad men and the public in general, as it has completely cured me.

GEO. W. BRADLEY,
Engineer Maine Central R. R.
PORTLAND, ME., May 12, 1883.

ALICE E. CURTIS, of Brunswick, Me., writes us on May 15, 1883: "That she has suffered, very much at frequent intervals with kidney disease, and the attacks were increasing in severity so steadily as to cause alarm. Her aunt, Mrs. N. M. Small, persuaded her to use Hunt's Remedy, and after using several bottles Miss Curtis has been freed from the severe aches and pains to which she had been accustomed; and further says that Hunt's Remedy never fails to relieve the severe pains in the side and intense backache, and Miss C. pronounces it a real blessing to woman for all kidney diseases, and she cordially recommends it for the many ills and pains peculiar to women."

Dyspepsia dampens the ardor of many an aspiring soul. Why suffer from dyspepsia? Why be frightened over disordered kidneys? Why continue the miserable life of a dyspeptic, nerveless mortal? Brown's Iron Bitters will surely cure you. It has permanently cured thousands of cases where other remedies afforded only temporary relief. Ask your druggist concerning its merit. Try a sample bottle and you will be relieved of further mental and physical distress.

Mr. P. Fitchgerald, Dundee, Wis., says: "I was confined to my bed with rheumatism and general debility. Brown's Iron Bitters cured me."

Dr. J. P. Newman, Toccoa City, Ga., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters are very popular and their use always results satisfactorily."

Chronic Diseases.
A Special Study for Years.
Dr. F. B. BREWER,
Has made Chronic Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Nerves and Blood.
A special treatment for years. He is not a boastful, ignorant pretender, but an educated physician, seeking to do good, by devoting his talent and energies to the treatment of a class of maladies that have been with him a long and patient study. To be able to treat successfully chronic diseases it requires that a physician should be a sound, thorough scholar in the art of science and medicine generally. He should give his entire time to their study, be thorough in his investigations and have a long and varied experience. Dr. Brewer claims to work no wonders or to do any more than any well educated physician can do, who devotes his whole time to the study and treatment of chronic diseases exclusively, and has had his many years of experience. For years Dr. Brewer has visited the the places he now visits, and has obtained his reputation by being honest in his dealings, candid in opinions and reasonable in his charges. Those who are afflicted are invited to call, investigate and decide for themselves. It will cost nothing to do so. Address all letters to Lock Box 350, Chicago, Ill.

Dr. F. B. Brewer will be at Janesville, Myers house, Saturday and Sunday the 3d and 4th of November.

HOPE FOR THE BALD
The Roots do not come out when the Hair leaves the Skin.
It has always been supposed that after the head became glazed and shiny it was hopeless to expect any hair. The following cut showing the growth of the hair, will illustrate better than words the fallacy of the old idea. This cut is a microscopic view of the follicle and papilla, from which the hair grows:

It will be readily seen that, though the hair is gone from the surface it is still alive healthy beneath the scalp, and is only prevented from growing by the contraction of the follicle in which it should grow.

How The Hair Grows on the Bald Head!

We apply friction to bring the blood to the surface and supply the scalp with a perfect hair-food to nourish the weak roots. We do not profess to grow hair on every head. Some from the use of alcoholic and poisonous preparations have destroyed the follicle. These cases are hopeless, but so rare that no one one should be discouraged from using one bottle of Benton's Hair Grower,
as this will demonstrate whether the follicle and roots are alive, and will also STRENGTHEN the remaining hair, stop its FALLING OUT, and cure DANDRUFF and ITCHING.

I HAVE USED BENTON'S HAIR GROWER!
John B. Taylor, (one of the heirs to the immense Taylor estate), of Newport, Ky., says of the Benton Hair Grower: "I have used it and find it all that is claimed for it; I like it very much, it has grown hair on my head to some extent."
BENTON HAIR GROWER CO. Dear Sirs:—About a year ago one-half of my head was bald and shiny, and as bare as the palm of my hand. I was told by physicians that it would be impossible for hair to grow on my head, as I had suffered so much from neuralgia. I am over sixty years of age, and began to use your Hair Grower less than a year ago. I have now as good a head of hair as I ever had in youth, it is now from five to six inches in length and in such a luxuriant condition that no one would think I had ever been bald.
Mrs. C. M. WILD, 118 Clinton St., Cleveland, O.

PARTIAL BALDNESS!
Baldness generally commences on the crown of the head, sometimes on the front of the head, in either case it is usually the result of fevers. If BENTON'S HAIR GROWER is used at once, the falling hair will stop and new hair will start.
Interesting reading about the hair sent on application with thousands of testimonials.
For the use of LADIES who are troubled with Dandruff, Gray Hair, Falling Hair or Itching of the Scalp, it is invaluable.

We believe that there is a large class of patent medicines whose ingredients are skillfully and conscientiously selected and compounded, and that they have been very useful in the domestic treatment of disease. We must come to this conclusion in precisely the same way that we come to the conclusion that a man is a skillful physician—by what they accomplish, and by the testimony of those who have used them. The reputation of a patent medicine is sustained by exactly the same evidence that supports a skillful physician's reputation. * * * Many of those medicines came out of the regular practice, and were prepared and originally prescribed by the best physicians. * * * Very few of them, we believe are humbugs and frauds in the consciousness or the intent of their makers. * * * The people, who are necessarily the judges, both of doctors and of medicines say that these medicines are not all frauds, and if human testimony is good for anything, that fact is established. —Scribner's Monthly.
LIVER
A FACT—Facts are established by testimony. The weight of the testimony is dependent upon the character of the witness. The following unimpeachable testimony pronounce Dow's Liver Cure a medicine of merit.
We, the undersigned, have used Dow's Liver Cure ourselves and in our families, for many of the diseases for which it is recommended, and we pronounce it the most reliable and efficient medicine yet introduced in this country, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all sufferers.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ORLEANS, August 1, 1883.
TO THE PUBLIC!
Investigate for Yourselves!
Postmaster-General Gresham having published a wilful and malicious falsehood in regard to the character of The Louisiana State Lottery Company, the following facts are given to the public to prove his statement, that we are engaged in a fraudulent business, to be false and untrue:
Amount of prizes paid by The Louisiana State Lottery Company from January 1, 1879, to present date:

Paid to Southern Express Co., New Orleans, T. M. Wescoat, Manager	$1,808,900
Paid to Louisiana National Bank, Jos. H. Oglesby, President	463,900
Paid to Louisiana State National Bank, S. H. Kennedy, President	125,100
Paid to New Orleans National Bank, A. Baldwin, President	88,550
Paid to Union National Bank, S. Charlaron, Cashier	64,450
Paid to Citizens' Bank, E. L. Carriere, President	57,000
Paid to Germania National bank, Jules Cassard, president	$30,000
Paid to Hibernia National bank, Chas. Palfrey, cashier	37,000
Paid to Canal bank, Ed. Toby, cashier	13,150
Paid to Mutual National bank, Jos. Mitchel, cashier	8,200
Total paid as above	$2,253,650
Paid in sums of under $1,000 at the various offices of the company throughout the United States	2,627,410
Total paid by all	$4,881,060

For the truth of the above facts we refer the public to the officers of the above-named corporations, and for our legality and standing to the mayor and officers of the city of New Orleans, to the state authorities of Louisiana, and also to the United States officials of Louisiana. We claim to be legal, honest and correct in all our transactions, as much so as any business in the country. Our standing is conceded by all who will investigate, and our stock has for years been sold at our board of brokers, and owned by many of our best known and respected citizens.

TUTT'S PILLS
TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.
From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect
ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.
HE FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN.
"I have had Dyspepsia, with Constipation, two years, and have tried ten different kinds of pills, and TUTT'S are the first that have done me any good. They have cleaned me out nicely. My appetite is splendid; food digests readily, and I now have natural passages. I feel like a new man." W. D. EDWARDS, Palmyra, O.

MEDICAL DISPENSARY—Dr. Fishblatt has taken a long lease on the residence of Mrs. Peter Myers, on East Milwaukee street, for his family, and will open a large dispensary in the city of Janesville next month, October, and make his future home here, and as soon as he can find a suitable place he will build. Due notice of his opening his office will appear in his column advertisement.

Shakex extract, pills and plasters, at Eldredge's.

TO THE PUBLIC—The undersigned has leased for a term of years, a part of the block formerly used by Hogoboom & Atwood on West Milwaukee street, and has opened a lumber yard where I will have better facilities for handling lumber than ever before. A side track of the Northwestern road now runs into the yard, which will save to persons purchasing lumber of me the expense of hauling with teams to the central part of the city. Persons wishing to purchase lumber are respectfully requested to call and examine my stock and prices at the new yard, before making purchases elsewhere. After the stock at the old yard on River street has been closed out, my business will all be transferred to the new place of business on West Milwaukee street. Office at the new yard is with Charles Atwood & Co. A. E. BURPEE.

Briefiets.

—Uncle Tom's Cabin is coming.

—A bunch of small keys awaits an owner at this office.

—Only one drunk before the municipal court to-day—five days.

—No. 2's hose team practice this evening, on Park street, at six o'clock.

—Miss Kittie Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q. O. Barnes, is very ill.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening.

—The Bower City Rifles are making arrangements for holding a dance in their armory in the course of a few weeks.

—Major S. S. Rockwood, of the Recorder, is confined to his home by illness. He is reported better to-day, and hopes to be all right in a day or two.

—The happy smiles on Rev. Horace Gates face now-a-days is finally accounted for—its a fine, handsome baby boy, and all Trinity Parish is happy.

—Some kind friend sends us the premium list, and complimentory tickets to the first annual fair of Spink county, Dakota, to be held at Redfield, September 25-7.

—The hook and ladder racers went to the fair ground between eight and nine o'clock last evening, and took a little exercise on the track. They will try it again this evening.

—The St. Patrick's T. A. and B. society will give one of their pleasant dancing parties in the Rifles armory on Thursday evening, October 4th. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music.

—We are informed by Mr. C. E. Bowles clerk of the board of education, that the new Swinton readers for our public school will be here ready to exchange in a couple of days, excepting the fifth reader, which will be delayed about two days.

—The dissolving view entertainment given by Rev. Horace Gates, of Trinity church, in Lappin's music hall last evening, for the benefit of Christ church guild, was well attended. All were well pleased with the exhibiton. The pictures are new and very fine. The entertainment will be repeated this evening, with an entire change of programme, and we would urge those who have not witnessed these views to attend one of these exhibitions.

—The Rowley Brothers, who have recently taken possession of the Turner photograph gallery in the Eldred block, West Milwaukee street, are first class artists, and have on exhibition some of the finest work ever executed in this city. They are prepared to take all sizes of pictures at the lowest rates, and warrant their work to give perfect satisfaction. They invite the public to visit their rooms and examine specimens of their work.

—Barnum's advertising brigade was in the city last evening, and drew a large crowd of people on the corn exchange square, where they exhibited a number of pictures by means of a magic lantern. Some of the pictures thrown upon the canvas were very fine, all representing scenes and curiosities connected with the great Barnum show, which is to exhibit in this city next Tuesday. This free exhibition was given under the management of Mr. R. F. Hamilton, one of the advance agents.

—Mr. Charles Forbes is in the city today, completing arrangements for the appearance of his theatrical company in the opera house on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. Mr. Forbes has engaged for the season Mr. Owen Bartlett, the well known commedian, who will be the star of the combination this season. On Monday night the great historical play of Uncle Tom's Cabin will be presented, and on Tuesday evening, Black Diamond.

—Messrs. Colling & Wray have purchased the building on North Main street, formerly occupied by Mr. A. C. Kent for the manufacture of his corn plynters, and will take possession of the same in a day or two. Messrs. Colling & Wray will use this building for a carpenter shop, where they will do all kinds of carpentering and job work and building of every description. The location is a good one, and a No. 1 firm is in the good location.

—Mr. Frank Stevens, of the real estate firm of Campbell & Stevens, severely sprained his ankle last evening by being thrown from his buggy, while driving near the residence of Mr. Wm. Spaulding on Milton avenue. His horse became frightened by a dog jumping from an ambush, and the sudden jump of the horse threw Mr. Stevens from the buggy. The horse in his fright, became entangled in a barb-wire fence, and was quite severely injured.

—Our attention was called to-day to an elegant gold and enameled Masonic charm encrusted with diamonds and rubies. This charm is a model of beauty and surpasses anything of the kind we have ever seen in the city. Messrs. F. C. Cook & Co. still take the lead in fine jewelry, and their case of gold watches is particularly attractive and contains all the leading manufactures, including the Howard, Elgin, Waltham, Springfield and Rockford. Their line of fine diamonds and other precious stones, is also very complete and an hour can be very pleasantly spent in looking through their stock. Courtesy and fair dealing have won for this firm an enviable reputation.

—It is somewhat strange that the city fathers take no notice of the existing agitation for the opening of some means of communication between the first ward and the vicinity of the new cotton factory. In some manner which is not understood by the public at large, the street running from Pleasant street in front of Mr. Leavitts, to the town line road has been closed and under the present arrangement, any person in the first ward wishing to drive to any point south of the Monroe branch of the St. Paul railroad must either take the route via Center avenue or go to the city limits on the west—either course being very indirect and objectionable. The lots between the Monroe branch and Western avenue are being rapidly sold. Many new dwellings are being erected and direct communication ought to be made possible between this growing settlement and the neighborhood north of the track. The most satisfactory way of accomplishing this object would seem to be to open Pine street—the distance would be but a few blocks. At any rate something should be done without delay to increase the facilities for intercourse between these two specified parts of the city.

The Forbes Dramatic Company at Opera House, Monday and Tuesday Evenings, Sept. 24th and 25th.

The Forbes dramatic company—Seldom has so large an audience, and one so well pleased with an evening's entertainment, been given at our opera house as that which witnessed the playing of Uncle Tom's Cabin last evening by Charley Forbes' dramatic company. The entire cast of characters is excellent, especially Topsy, as played by Mrs. Nelson Kneass, and Eva, by the little actress, only three years old, who is a perfect darling. Between the acts Mrs. Theo. Dana, the eminent pianist, rendered some of the most difficult music in a manner that elicited frequent applause from the audience—Springfield Republican.

Monday afternoon at close of public schools, a grand matinee of Uncle Tom's Cabin will be given. Admission—children, 15 and 20 cents. Every child receives a present. Adults, 25 cents.

Monday evening will be presented Uncle Tom's Cabin, and Tuesday evening the thrilling play, Black Diamonds, which portrays with vivid reality the startling scenes and incidents of the great Molly Maguire miners' strike in Pennsylvania.

Admission: Dress circle, 50 cents; parquette, 35 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 50 degrees above zero. Clear with east wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 82 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with east wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 66 and 73 degrees above zero.

8. Galop.....Reite

Consumption can be cured by a persistent use of N. H. Down's Vegetable Balsamic Elixir. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

The Chicago Driving Park.

We have received from Mr. D. L. Hall, secretary of the Chicago driving park, 116 Monroe street, a programme of the fall meeting of that association to be held October 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, 1883. It promises to be one of the most interesting racing events of the season. Over $16,000 are offered in purses for trotting, pacing, hurdle races and steeple-chases; and while special attention has been paid to the slower classes, and to roadsters and double team races, with the intention of bringing out the best of the new and promising horses of the west, yet the faster classes are so arranged as to secure the presence of the trotting and pacing celebrities of the year, including such horses as St. Julien, Jay-Eye-See, Phillas, Director, Fanny Witherspoon, Monroe Chief, Wilson, George V., Black Cloud, Trinket, Edwin Thorne, Minnie R., Eva, Toney Newell, Sleepy Joe, Maxy Cobb, Overman, and Zoe B., among the trotters; and Johnston, Gurgle, Richball, Buffalo Girl, Flora Belle, Gem, Lucy, and Westmont, among the pacers. The programme is so arranged that each day will present special and attractive features.

"You are very kind, sir," but I prefer N. K. Brown's Ess. Jamaica Ginger. I know what it does."

Personal.

—Mr. L. M. Nelson, the janitor of the court house, went to Chicago this morning.

—Mr. James Fathers is doing business in Chicago to-day, and will take a look at the exposition.

—Mr. Garret Veeder went to Milwaukee to-day, for the purpose of attending the exposition.

—Mr. Harris Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Richardson, of this city, has opened a law office in St. Paul.

—Miss Anna Brayton, of Marquette, Wis, is in the city, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. T. Brayton, of the fourth ward.

—Mrs. W. Kelley, Locust street, fourth ward, has returned home from a visit, with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Lovejoy in Dakota.

—Ex-Sheriff H. L. Skavlem left to-day for Fort Dodge, Iowa, to look after his landed interests, and try his luck shooting chickens. He will be absent a week or ten days.

—W. R. Whitnall has gone to Chicago to resume his studies at the college of physicians and surgeons, accompanied by J. H. Rolfe, who has been visiting a few weeks with relatives in this city.

—Miss Lizzie Jenkins, who has been teaching in the public schools of Osage, Iowa, for the past three years, is in the city for a few weeks' visit, being the guest of Miss Mary Antisdel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Antisdel, of the fourth ward.

—Colonel N. Smith, of the Gazette, went to Milwaukee to-day to attend the exposition, this being editor's day. A grand banquet was given the journalists in the exposition building this afternoon, at which covers were removed at three o'clock. Major Rockwood, of the Recorder, was to have responded to the toast "Educational interests of Wisconsin," but on account of illness was unable to be present.

—Mr. A. Eager, of Evansville, who went to California on the 18th of last July, with the Knights Templar excursion party, arrived in this city last evening on his way home, and made the Gazette office a pleasant call, while waiting for the cars. Mr. Eager reports having had a pleasant trip, and speaks well of the treatment received while on the Pacific coast. He returned by way of Santa Fe.

—Beloit Free Press: "Captain Pliny Norcross, late of Brooklyn, N. Y., was in Beloit yesterday, partly on legal business, but more especially to note the changes and improvements which had been wrought in our city since he shook the dust from his Episcopalian slippers and consented to invest his wealth and bury his forensic talents in a Brooklyn tile yard. But the captain has repented—the prodigal has returned to his father's house—to his first love, and while it will be pleasant to remember him as "late of Brooklyn," it is a satisfaction to know that he is later still and now again recognized permanently as a citizen and tax payer of Rock county's capital, Janesville."

Why so Downcast.

True, you are in a miserable condition—you are weak, pallid and nervous. You cannot sleep at night, nor enjoy your waking hours; yet, why lose heart? Get at the druggist's a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters. They will restore you to health and peace of mind.

Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Sherer & Co.

CHAMOIS SKINS.

French oil-dressed chamois skins of superior quality at Prentice & Evenson's or fifty cents each. Fine bath sponges very cheap.

Accidents at Evansville.

Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock, Mr. George C. Taggart, engineer at the Match factory, while in the act of oiling the engine, caught his clothes in a revolving shaft and they were stripped from his body almost instantly, leaving him entirely naked, aside from his boots and socks. He was immediately conveyed to his residence and Dr. H. R. Bulson called, who reports him quite seriously injured, but thinks no bones are broken and that he will recover.

About the same hour, Mr. John Hollinsworth, of Union, who was in the employ of the Lehman Bros., at the Furniture factory, accidentally got his left hand against a buzz saw, almost severing the second and third fingers and badly lacerating all the rest, including the thumb. He was taken to Dr. J. M. Evan's office where his hand was properly bandaged and dressed. The doctor thinks he will be able to save his fingers, but undoubtedly two of them will always remain stiff. He was taken to his home by Wm. Hubbord, who was in town with his team.—Evansville Enterprise.

In and Out of Andersonville.

W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., are making arrangements for a lecture, to be delivered in this city some time next month, probably about the 20th of October, and have engaged Mr. Frank W. Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, to deliver his popular lecture—"In and out of Andersonville." Mr. Smith is a brother of Capt. H. A. Smith, formerly of the Guards, was a prisoner fourteen months in Andersonville. Mr. Smith is a fine orator, and has received the highest recommendations of the press and public wherever he has delivered his lecture and their is no doubt but he will be well received when he visits this city on the above occasion.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR will arrest every ailment of the lungs, throat, or chest.

The Sea of Oblivion.

would long since have swallowed up Sozodont in common with so many forgotten tooth pastes and dentifrices, did not the experience of a whole nation prove, that it possesses signal advantages. It thoroughly cleans the teeth, dissolving and removing their impurities; it revives their fading whiteness and strengthens their relaxing hold upon their sockets; it renders colorless, ulcerated gums hard and healthy; and besides neutralizing an unsavory breath, invests it with its own fragrance.

Keep off malarial diseases by the use of Dr. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters. Price 25 cents. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

The Tarice-Armed Panoply of Truth.

The success of merit when once recognized as a success invariably excites detraction and stimulates envy, hatred, malice and all uncharitableness. No man or enterprise is worthy of regard whose reputation has not been some time assailed by the baffled rage of some disappointed one, whose attempt to defraud, defame or destroy a righteous cause has been defeated after detection. The panoply of truth, honesty and fair dealing to all has caused The Louisiana State Lottery to be invincible to any attack upon the integrity of the management of its distribution by Generals G. T. Beauregard, of La., and Jubal A. Early, of Va., and while here and there, some disappointed one may grumble; public opinion is unanimous that everything is straight and square. The next drawing (the 161st monthly) will take place on October 9th, and any information desired will be given on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

Barnum's Hippodrome and Four-Ring Circus.

Of this tremendous consolidation, which is to be exhibited here on Tuesday September 25th, the New York papers speak very warmly. The daily Star says: "Barnum's Roman hippodrome has been added to the regular entertainment of the combined P. T. Barnum and London eight shows. The circus performances were given in four rings, and the hippodrome race took place on a track which extended around the entire building and was over thirty feet wide. In order to give the Roman sports, it should be remembered that an additional equestrian ring had to be built. By this means four acts were given at one time, saving one minute in each, or fifty-four in all, a long enough time to give all the glorious sports of the hippodrome. There were besides all the acts of the triple circus in three rings, the special acts on the big elevated stage, the two mammoth double menageries, the immense museum of living curiosities and the other features, all the glorious races of P. T. Barnum's Roman hippodrome, consisting of thrilling four-horse chariot races, two-horse chariot races, Roman double-team standing races, male and female jockey races, monkey jockey races, sack races, wheelbarrow races, elephant races, giraffe races, and most puzzling, humorous and laughable of all, the obstacle race. In this latter a number of contestants take part and the fun consists in their surmounting the numberless obstacles which are placed in their path, consisting of greased poles, gates, swinging barrels, hurdles, lighted candles, a trap net, through the meshes of which the runners are compelled to pass, creating the most intense merriment. The chariot races are such as to create the most boisterous enthusiasm, people rising off their seats and hurrahing and waving their hats and otherwise evidencing their pleasure. All the circus features are retained, not a single act being omitted, and the hippodrome is simply added to the other performances, making the largest and best show ever seen. No one would possibly understand the magnitude or magnificence of this entertainment except a person brought up in the business, because it is almost impossible to particularize. There are fifty-four circus acts in three rings and upon a big stage; then follows the Roman hippodrome, with its—first, glorious entree, representing the chief features of all nations, the sports of ancient Rome, gladiatorial combats, contests of strength and endurance, and the ever to be remembered races. At no time in the past has Mr. Barnum ever given to this city so grand a show as the present one, and the Napoleon of the business—James A. Baily—has thoroughly merited the title, for he has without doubt conferred upon the prince of showmen as much as he ever received previous to his connection with him. The show is now, for the first time, complete, Madison Square Garden being generally too small to admit of the whole being given at one time, a fact New Yorkers don't seem to understand, but which the people of the country know very well. Taken all in all, it will be many years, if ever, that we shall look upon its like again; indeed, it would be hard to expect to.

A Clergyman's Testimony.

W. E. Gifford, pastor M. E. church Bothwell, Ont., was for two years a sufferer with dyspepsia in its worst form until as he states "life became an actual burden." Three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, and he tells us in a recent letter that he considers it the best family medicine now before the country for dyspepsia and liver complaint.

SUPERIOR BAY RUM

We have received an original package of superior quality

Imported Bay Rum!

which owing to the removal of Revenue Stamp Tax on this class of goods, we are enabled to sell at same price as inferior goods of domestic manufacturer. Most of the so-called Bay Water in the market is manufactured from pimento and alcohol, which closely resembles the genuine in odor, but is very irritating to the skin. The

Porto Rico Bay Rum

We offer is a true distilled essence of the Bay Leaf, and will be found very effecual for headache, and cool and refreshing for the toilet and bath.
